The Wife of Noble Character

While we are not in the habit of celebrating man made holidays in the Church - we are instructed in many areas of the Bible to show proper respect to those that deserve respect. Our mothers and wives of noble character have certainly earned the respect of all mankind, families and the Church. Because of these very special people, today we celebrate their service to us and our love for them and what they have represented for many centuries.

A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life. She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands. She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar. She gets up while it is still dark; she provides food for her family and portions for her servant girls. She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard. She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks. She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night. In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers. She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy. When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet. She makes coverings for her bed; she is clothed in fine linen and purple. Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes. She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:

"Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all."
Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her the reward she has earned,
and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Proverbs 31:10-31

WELCOME

- * It is a great honor having our visitors with us today. We always rejoice in the opportunity to meet new people, and we hope you will stay around following services to visit. There is a visitor card located in the back of the pews that you may fill out and drop in the collection plate.
- * Cry Room Available: For those with little children, we would like to make available to you our cry room at the back of the auditorium, should you need it. It is equipped with a speaker system, so that you will not miss out on the worship.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- ◆ Wednesday Bible Lessons - On 4/7/10 we began our Wednesday Bible lessons again. We look forward to studying with you at 6:00 p.m.
- ◆ Happy Mothers Day - Today we want to honor our Mothers. Today we celebrate one of the most fantastic creations of God - Our Mothers. Please spend time today to tell your Mother or Wife how much we love them for their service to God and their families.
